

The venue for our 2016 talks will be -

The Holiday Inn Aylesbury,
New Road,
Weston Turville,
Aylesbury,
HP22 5QT

and held on -
Wednesday evenings (starting at 7.30 p.m.)

The Bucks District Association will also be supporting our great vegetable growing hobby with display stands during 2016 at -

- Buckingham Nursery's Potato Day on Saturday, 27th February
- Bucks County Show at Weedon Park, Aylesbury during August
- Thame & Oxfordshire County Show at Thame Showground, Thame during September.

If you are visiting any of these events do look us up. We will be very pleased to see you

The National Vegetable Society supports the growing and eating of vegetables.

For further details see our website, www.nvsuk.org.uk, or locally at the Bucks District Association.

David Elkins, Secretary
e-mail: sec-nvs-bucks-da@hotmail.co.uk
Tel: 01296 630659

2016 TALKS & EVENTS PROGRAMME

BUCKS DISTRICT ASSOCIATION

Helping you enjoy & perfect your vegetable growing

The Venue for our 2016 talks has changed.

They will now be on Wednesdays at the Holiday Inn, Aylesbury.

(See overleaf for full details)

2016 PROGRAMME

Staged by the
BUCKS DISTRICT ASSOCIATION

MARCH

Wednesday 16th 7.00 p.m. (note earlier start time)

John Bebbington - "From Back Bedroom to Allotment and back again".

John is a keen vegetable grower. All his vegetables are grown on his allotment in Crewe. His expertise in growing top-quality vegetables has enabled him to become a National Championship winner and a fully qualified Judge. John is a much sought-after speaker and we are very pleased to welcome him to the Bucks DA.

The above talk will be preceded by our very short Annual General Meeting.

JUNE

Wednesday 1st2.00 p.m.

Garden Visit - Lords Wood

Our private garden visit this year is to Lords Wood, Marlow. The gardens' five acres features extensive borders in varying styles, vegetable and herb gardens, a rockery, orchard and a large water garden, together with wild flower meadows that have not been cultivated for 40 years - all with impressive views over the Chilterns.

Tickets available from Brian Rance at £8.50 each including tea & home-made cake, on a first-come, first-served basis.

Your ticket will provide travel directions.

Contact Brian on 01494 783462 or e-mail: brian@chartridgelane.com

OCTOBER

Wednesday 19th ... 7.30 p.m.

Richard White started growing vegetables as a young lad with his father on their allotment.

His love of growing vegetables enabled him to become involved in trials at the RHS Wisley gardens and subsequently many years on their model vegetable plot.

Currently Richard is the Trials Garden manager for Tozer Seeds. His knowledge and experience makes his advice on the right cultivars to grow invaluable.

APRIL

Wednesday 20th 7.30 p.m.

Sherie Plumb makes a welcome return to the Bucks DA. Sherie, a consistent winner of National Championships, is a great all-round gardener as we will learn this evening.

Famous for her exemplary Runner Beans, Potatoes and Cauliflowers, she has perfected the growing of many vegetables.

We look forward to learning many of her secrets that we can put to good use on our gardens.

JUNE

Wednesday 22ndfrom 6.00 p.m.

Our annual evening visit to John & Jill Branham's garden is one of complete relaxation whilst taking in the views over the Aylesbury Vale and looking at the superb vegetables and fruit.

You are free to wander around the garden and glass-houses as you please and then enjoy a glass of wine, a cup of coffee or tea and perhaps a little cheese during a chat with fellow vegetable growers.

Plenty of parking

Everyone welcome.

NOVEMBER

Wednesday 16th 7.30 p.m.

Peter Glazebrook on "Growing Giant Vegetables". Peter is an extraordinary vegetable grower. He has held world records for the Heaviest Onion, Carrot and Potato, the Longest Beetroot and Parsnip, together with a colossal cauliflower of 60 lbs which measured 6' wide.

He is truly a celebrity figure in GIANT VEGETABLE circles.

If you wish to glean a few secrets of his success do join us for what promises to be a fascinating evening in the company of a true master of his craft.

ALL the above talks are FREE to NVS members.
Non-member guests very welcome - just £3 payable at the door.