

Bucks District Association of the National Vegetable Society

are proud to stage an evening with Ivor Mace

Tuesday, 4th March 2014 at 7.00 p.m.
at Pitstone Memorial Hall,
Vicarage Road, Pitstone, LU7 9EY

Ivor, a stalwart and long-serving member of the NVS, is a retired horticultural professional. He frequently expresses his forthright views on radio, TV and in the gardening press including Garden News, Amateur Gardening, and the National Vegetable Society's magazine "Simply Vegetables".

His talk will feature Leeks & Onions and how to achieve the very best results for these popular vegetables for the show bench, kitchen and table.

DO NOT MISS THIS ONE-OFF OPPORTUNITY to see and hear a very experienced, down-to-earth gardener.

Ivor amongst his chrysanthemums

NVS Members free.

Non-member guests very welcome at just £3 including refreshments during the interval.

The Bar, with its excellent Club prices, will be open.